SELFIES, SNAPCHAT, AND THE SIGNS OF THE TIMES: MINISTERING TO THE MILLENNIALS

WITH MURPHY LIERLEY

The Church is commissioned to spread the timeless truths of the Gospel to the men and women of every age. To better serve this end, we are asked to understand and interpret the signs of the times. In this presentation, join a conversation which discusses the largest generation in history: the millennials. We will explore who the millennials are, where their aspirations and anxieties come from, and how to minister to them and with them.

Thursday, August 22, 2019

7:00 - 9:00 PM

St. Gregory the Great Parish

11451 Blue Cypress Drive, San Diego 92131

Free and open to everyone!

Catechists and religious educators are especially invited to attend.

Murphy Lierley serves as the Manager of FOCCUS Inc. USA., the marriage preparation and enrichment ministry working in the Archdiocese of Omaha, Nebraska. Murphy served as a youth minister and director of faith formation before working with FOCCUS and is about to graduate with his master's degree in theology from the Augustine Institute in Denver. He and his wife Kelli, who teaches 2nd grade in a catholic school, enjoy sand volleyball, spending time with family.
